

REDEMPTION

"What can I say but I am thankful for the journey that has evolved around my life. It has taken a long time to get to this point, what I present to you is not just an album but a piece of flesh torn directly from my body. I've suffered many hardships and setbacks, and friends turned to foes but as the dust clears I am still here, solid as a rocc" - "Mr. Cas"

Redemption - Deliverance and Freedom, as freedom from the penalty of sin by payment of ransom. Through His death on the cross Jesus paid the ransom for us and set us free. (Romans 3:24)

My BEST FRIEND

My best friend is my husband. We may have our disagreements and he may not treat me the way I feel I need to be treated, but over all I love him for his honesty and how he expresses his feelings to me. I can turn to him whenever something is troubling me and he will give me an honest answer. I also find it very easy at times opening up to him, and even though he has hurt me tremendously, he has also brought me joy, happiness, and laughter when I couldn't see past my tears or aching heart. And for all of this, I appreciate his unique beauty and genuine heart and I will always love my husband Brandon "my baby" Vinson good, bad, or indifferent.

Obituary

Brandon Vinson, known to many as "Cas" was born in Buffalo, New York on March 4, 1975 to Monroe and Gladys Vinson. He was the eleventh born of seven brothers and five sisters. He attended school throughout the Inland Empire, where he received the Ronald Regan Presidential Award and Honor Roll. He married his junior high sweetheart, Sylvia June Tisdorn on January 4, 2006. As the father of Bre'andon and the step-father to Justin, Toryn, and Kailyn, his life was full of love for each of them.

Brandon was a die-hard Steeler and Laker fan. In addition, to his love of football and basketball, he loved cars, especially his classic Monte Carlo.

Brandon's passion in life was his love of rap music. In 1991, he became the missing link within the New Breed of Hustlas, which the group went on to achieve numerous recognition through radio, magazine articles, and even an appearance at the Grammy's. Unfortunately, his musical career was cut short when he spent seven years of his life in Indiana, where he did a lot of soul searching and rededicated his life to the Lord.

"Out of the old-self a new one is born"- Upon reuniting with family and friends, he picked up where he left off and started his own record label "REPTHATENT", which he used his love of music to guide the younger generation around him to strive for their dreams through music. Brandon was a natural born leader and mentor, who understood first hand the trials and tribulations these young men faced daily and he went far and beyond to see to it that their purpose in life didn't go unnoticed.

Brandon was called from his family and friends to his reward suddenly on Sunday, February 21, 2010. He is survived by his wife, Sylvia Vinson, of Hesperia; his four children Bre'Andon, Justin, Toryn, Kailyn. He leaves to cherish his memory his parents Monroe Vinson of Buffalo and Gladys Vinson of Las Vegas and his mother-in law Penny Brown of Hesperia. Eight Brothers: Monroe Vinson, Robert Vinson, Markie Vinson, Eric Vinson, Maurio Vinson, Monroe Vinson Jr, Terique Vinson, Phillip Brown. Five Sisters: Veda Bolden, Valencia Bolden, Crystal Vinson, Monica Vinson-Wheeler, Shavawnia Vinson-Simmons. Brother and Sister In-laws: Lenora Vinson, Alicia Vinson, Lisa Vinson, Yvette Vinson, Stacy Vinson, Harold Simmons, Leon Wheeler. His Greatest Joy: His nieces and nephews; and a host of family and friends.

In our hearts forever, you will always remain our husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and homey.
